

Some things to do and see whilst staying at il sorger del sole

Cingoli (Comune)

Riviera del Conero

Cingoli Lake

A region of outstanding beauty, Le Marche with its enchanting rolling landscapes and medieval hill top towns is steeped in history with 100 towns and a thousand squares, 6 national parks, 6 nature reserves, 15 state forests, 180km of Adriatic coastline with its splendid blue flag beaches, 113 theatres, 150 castles & fortresses, 400 museums & art galleries, 90 abbeys, numerous churches and of course is famous for its gastronomic delights. Marche is the land of condottieri - of popes and artists. This beautiful sparsely populated region with its warm and friendly people still remains relatively undiscovered. Here, you will find the pace of life relaxed - with quiet mornings & slow afternoons and a right time to rest.

Sightseeing & activities:

il sorger del sole with its panoramic views overlooking the Marchigiano territory all the way to the Adriatic Sea is centrally located for a holiday, mid-week or weekend break or potential house buyers can experience a real insight into life in Le Marche. Towards the nearby medieval walled town of Cingoli there are over 12000 acres of woodlands with countless walks and mountain trails to explore. On the outskirts of Cingoli there is the largest man made lake in Central Italy which offers walking along its banks, swimming and sunbathing from its beaches, canoeing and boating. There is so much to do and see the arts, the culture, the architecture, the music, the food, the festivals, the opera, theatres, art galleries, dancing and so on.

A few ideas to think about when planning your 2016 Holiday with us:

Stay at home activities:

How our extra virgin olive oil (Michelin Star Chef endorsed) is produced:

We have 91 aged olive trees and Greg will be pleased to show you around the olive groves and explain what happens in the production of our extra virgin olive oil. He will explain how our trees are pruned, what happens during harvesting when our olives are carefully raked off by hand and (subject to accessibility at the press) will give you a tour of the local press and show you the different stages involved in the fascinating process of converting our olives into olive oil. If you would like to stay with us during our olive harvesting (usually November to mid-December) then you would have the opportunity to see the whole process and even try your hand at olive picking!

Learn a little Italian or if you are Italian learn a little English with Prof. Greg:

If you want to brush up on your Italian and to learn the basics on how to order drinks, what to say in the restaurant or how to travel on the bus or train we can suggest the best way using Italian!

The great outdoors:

Our guests constantly remind us how much they enjoying relaxing at il sorger del sole. You can enjoy walking around our olive groves and you can smell and almost taste the wild thyme. In the early months sheep and their lambs graze on our land. In spring there are species of wild flowers everywhere and from early summer many different species of butterflies. There is an abundance of wildlife with deer, badgers, foxes, hedgehogs, squirrels & porcupines to be seen. In the months of June/July there are luccioli (fireflies) everywhere 'lighting' your way around our ancient olive trees.

To please birdwatchers there are buzzards, eagles and kestrels soaring above with hoopoe, yellowhammers, goldfinch, magpies, nightingales, owls, woodpeckers to name but a few to be seen in our garden and groves. As the weather becomes warmer listen to the nightingales (Usignoli) sing through the night! There are many sporting activities including mountain bike trails, the Conero Golf Club at Sirolo (18 & 9 hole courses) and skiing in the mountains during the winter months

Top up your tan:

For those wishing to top up their tans our secluded gardens and groves offer private areas to sunbathe.

Nature lovers, birdwatchers, walkers & ramblers:

There are countless spectacular walks to suit all levels of ability and fitness from flat plains, gentle slopes to hill walking, nature trails, birds and wild life to observe, rolling landscapes and scattered farmhouses for those interested in painting or sketching, mountain bike trails, horse riding, secluded areas for picnicking and those passionate about photography - timeless landscapes and architecture - all these within a few minutes drive from il sorger del sole! Around the Lago di Cingoli (Cingoli lake) there are cormorants, mallards, falcons, bitterns, snipes, herons, kingfishers and so on.

Wine Tasting:

This local area produces some fantastic DOC wines which many of our guests have not yet discovered! We generally prefer the white wines and our favourite is 'Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi' the vines can be seen on the outskirts of Cingoli, Cupramontana, Monte Carotto, Morro d'Alba and Jesi. Some producers are quite small and others have very large facilities. We have visited many of the producers. If our guests wish to 'try before they buy' or even just sample some of these delicious wines without being obliged to purchase we supply them with a detailed itinerary with directions. We have a number of 'returnees' who often ask us to accompany them on their wine tour! We usually buy our wines by the 'dame' (demi-john) these are filled up sometimes by gravity from the stainless tanks containing the wines and some wineries even have something similar to a petrol pump complete with 'fuel nozzle' and LCD display of the quantity and total price!

Where to cool off in the summer:

With the clear and warm azure Adriatic sea, and the Riviera del Conero with its safe blue flag beaches, specialty fish restaurants, bars, walks and a host of water sports - paragliding, sailing, diving, jet skis etc., is just 30 minutes drive away! Closer to il sorger del sole is Cingoli lake with bars, restaurants, boat hire, beach and swimming (10 minutes), a superb water park with slides, large pools, bars and restaurants (10 minutes) and another water park (20 minutes) plus thermal pools (20 minutes).
